Remake Learning Days of Central PA: 40+ events for your students, families & educators
Hosted by: ENGINE of Central PA

To all of our wonderful school systems across central Pa:

After a most challenging year for education, we are delighted to bring you Remake Learning Days of Central PA, part of Remake Learning Days Across America (RLDAA). RLDAA is a festival of events celebrating learning innovation that will be occur between April 22 – May 23, 2021 by a variety of organizations – from schools, science centers and museums, libraries, colleges and universities, PBS stations and more. These events are designed for parents and caregivers to learn alongside their kids and offer relevant and engaging educational experiences for youth of all ages (pre-K through high school). There are also opportunities for educators as well and the majority of events are free or at low cost.

Remake Learning Days of Central PA, occurring across the ENGINE of Central PA Ecosystem, will include over 40+ events – including in-person, hybrid, and virtual events hosted by our local community organizations that are here with you as we wrap up this academic year. Also, as part of Remake Learning Days this year, you will be hearing more from your local Career Liaison on how your students can obtain artifacts for their career portfolio through the Career Ready PA Backpack Challenge. More to come!

In the meantime, please utilize these helpful guidelines to share Remake Learning Days of Central PA to your schools and communities, and all can be accessed in this Google Folder: https://drive.google.com/drive/folders/1Zf3LA6zu5iWZz2_TM1MRM63-SilrjqFQ?usp=sharing
